

Internet Websites

The following are internet websites that I have used for program ideas:

www.Educationworld.com

This is basically for teachers but you can find information in lesson plans that can be adapted for a Grange program.

www.PoemHunter.com

This website has all kinds of poems and quotations sorted by subject.

www.classroomclipart.com

Over 100,000 free clip art images, clipart, illustrations and photographs for every occasion. Over 2,000 clip art related categories to choose from.

www.Poemsource.com

This website has over 800 original greeting card poems.

www.grit.com

This website for Rural American Know - how has articles about animals, farm & garden, tools, food and recipes.

www.HistoryLink.org

The free online encyclopedia of Washington state. This site is searchable in a number of different ways.

www.theholidayzone.com

The Holiday Zone -- your one-stop resource for free holiday and seasonal educational activities. There are free learning resources for all of your favorite winter holidays including learning games, language activities, writing prompts, songs, action rhymes, fingerplays, printable worksheets, flash cards, word walls, puzzles, coloring pages, arts and crafts, ELL resources, and other winter fun.

www.theholidayspot.com

This is a place where you can get ideas, crafts, recipes, greeting cards, traditions & history, activities and social networking on all your favorite holidays and festivals. A place that lets you celebrate your events, holidays and festivals like never before.

www.nationalgrange.org

Our National Grange website – click on the various topics on the banner and you can find all kinds of information about our policies and programs.

www.wa-grange.com

The Washington State Grange website has lots of information on it.
